Terms, Conditions of Service and Disclaimers

- ❖ People in Connection has the following terms, disclaimers and privacy policies in place to protect our clients and ourselves.
- ❖ It is your responsibility to read this information in full. Any questions are cheerfully answered, although, we have tried to keep it simple.
- ❖ It is important to read these terms completely.

a. Regarding Our Web Sites and Links

- ❖ People in Connection takes no responsibility for any links to sites that may not be suitable to your personal preferences, nor are we responsible for the content of our associate partner sites.
- ❖ Content on associate sites is not necessarily the views of People in Connection.
- ❖ People in Connection is not responsible for any damage to computers as a result of downloading any software from our site. We have no control over its ability to work for you. If you have any problems with any software you download, please contact the company that it originated from.
- ❖ All written material and photographs on our site is copyright and owned by People in Connection unless otherwise noted. You are most welcome to publish articles with our tagline and link to our site.

b. Regarding Your Web Site

- ❖ It is your responsibility to proof your web site or ads for accuracy and spelling unless you have requested this service. Once you have signed the release form, this constitutes that you have agreed to the publication of your web site or ad to the Internet.
NO REFUNDS are issued once this release is signed off, either in writing or via email.
- ❖ In the case of an error on a new web site that is placed online, we will correct it within two business days of notification at no charge as long as it is within two weeks of publication, but take no further responsibility.
- ❖ People in Connection takes no responsibility for lost income or projected income loss in the case of web site interruptions due to technical issues or power interruptions from outside sources. Our web site information is backed up weekly up to the last update we do for your site, (you are responsible for your own updates).
- ❖ Any unresolved disputes over any of our services provided to our clients or advertisers are limited to the price of the services provided and must be presented within 14 days of publication. Every attempt must be made to resolve the dispute directly with Successful Alternatives via, email or fax and discussion before service costs are refunded.
- ❖ People in Connection gives no guarantee of business to our web site clients. We will endeavour to create a web site that works for your individual needs based on your input and approval of the final draft before it is published and to advise you of ways to make your web site work effectively for you if you wish.
- ❖ All written materials and images on your web site that you ask us to place are your responsibility for copyright or copyright approvals.
- ❖ People in Connection takes no responsibility for misuse of images or content on your site or legal proceedings that are a result of copyright infringement. All materials must be approved by the client in writing before the site is published. All images and web site designs provided by People in Connection are royalty free to our knowledge.
- ❖ Full Payment for services is due when your site is published unless payment arrangements are made prior to publication.
- ❖ A minimum deposit of $250 or 50% of the cost is due when services commence. This deposit serves as your approval for the work to continue. If you decide after approving the layout of the design of your web site, that you want to change it, you will be responsible for any added expenses. (Two samples for the site layout are included in this price)
- ❖ Lack of payment of invoices distributed by People in Connection within 15 days will result in client web sites or advertising to be discontinued until payment is settled unless other arrangements have been made and agreed to previously.
